THE INDIANS.

stands in severity should be permanently secured to... But little progress has been made by the Indians for whom the reservation was set apart on Colorado river...

THE PRESIDENT'S NEW POLICY.

It is worthy of notice that, within the greater number of tribes still adhere to the customs and manner of life of their fathers, others, under the practical workings of that civilization to which their minds are being directed...

THE PEGIAN MASSACRE.

Those with whom we have had, perhaps, the greatest trouble are the Piegian Indian band of the Blackfoot Nation, who range in Montana and across into the British possessions. It is true that members of the Blackfoot nation have been guilty of the past year have been guilty of frequent depredations upon the property of the citizens of Montana...

THE GRAND COUNCIL OF THE TRIBES.

The various Indian tribes in Indian Territory were during the past summer informed, through the Superintendent of Indian Affairs, that Congress had made an appropriation for the purpose of holding a general council, provided for in the treaties with the Cherokee and other tribes concluded in 1866...

THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CLERGY AND THE INDIANS.

It is claimed by persons who, doubtless, are cognizant of the fact, that the Roman Catholic clergy in the Indian Territory are doing all in their power to subvert the friendly relations which exist between the Government and the Indians...

JAPAN.

Particulars of Mr. Seward's Reception by the Mikado—Minister De Long's Diplomacy. A Yokohama (Oct. 25) correspondent of the Chicago Tribune writes as follows:—Japanese excitement is beyond question, rapidly giving way to Western civilization, and the reception accorded Mr. Seward, I take it, will make an important era in the history of Japan...

SEWARD'S DECLINE TO BREAKFAST WITH THE JAPANESE MINISTER.

Mr. DeLong explained to Mr. Seward that he had long served his country as chief adviser of the President, that he did not make it a point to be fetted and dined, that he was not desirous of such sort of attentions, etc., etc.

THE FRENCH ATTACK IN FORCE.

On Tuesday, the 29th, the Parisians came out towards L'Hay, supported by their gendarmes in the Seine. At this point the position of the 6th Prussian Corps was attacked fiercely.

FROM EUROPE.

A Sortie Out of Paris—A Succession of French Defeats.

LONDON, Nov. 30.—Noon.—The following despatch, dated Versailles, early this morning, has just been received here, by way of Berlin. On Monday and Tuesday the forts around Paris, particularly those to the south of D'Ivry, Bicetre, Montrouge, Vanvres, D'Issy, and Charenton, maintained a furious cannonade.

NEW JERSEY.

The Official Vote for Congressmen. The New Jersey Board of State Canvassers met yesterday afternoon, in the Executive Chamber, in the State House at Trenton, to examine the official returns. The entire State returns by townships were examined and passed.

HYDROPHOBIA.

A Man Dies Three Months After Being Bitten by a Mad Dog. Mr. English, the keeper of the Western Pike toll-gate leading from Alexandria to Fairfax, who was bitten last summer by a dog supposed to be suffering with hydrophobia, and upon whom that terrible disease was recently developed, died last evening, about 6 o'clock, from exhaustion, after the most intense suffering.

THE CONFERENCE ON THE EASTERN QUESTION.

LONDON, Nov. 30.—The feeling this morning in money circles is healthful. The Telegraph is enabled to promise that the conference on the Eastern question will certainly be held in London.
